Manchester Bureau Richmond Times, Twelfth and Hull streets. Branch Office, 1104 Decatur street. The recent robberies in and near the city have greatly warned the people and put the police officers on the lookout. The robberies began last week, when the house of Mr. Ivanhoe Harris, near this city, was entered and a lot of goods stolen. This theft, it will be remembered, was committed in the daytime, when Mrs. Harris was in the city doing marketing.

'Next a visit was paid Mr. W. I. Moody on the night of the same day. Mr. Moody hearing the thieves frightened them off, but not until he had fallen down the stairs, hurting himself quite badly.

Tuesday night they called at the residence of Mr. R. C. Broaddus and carried off a line

Wednesday forenoon a burglary was committed at the residence of Mr. W. S. D Brien on Cowardin avenue during the absence of Mrs. O Brien. At the latter place a guitar, a pair of suspenders, some jeweiry, James Brown, an old oilender and noto-rious negro who is a familiar one in the police circles, was also locked up,

A few nights ago thieves stole a lot of lead pipe from three unoccupied dwellings on Seventh street belonging to Messrs. Woodward & Son. They dup eighteen inches in the ground for the pipe and then filled the trench up again. They got about one hundred feet of pipe, for which they probably relived $20.

The Chesterfield board of supervisors will The Chesterfield board of supervisors will meet at the court-house Monday. Besides other matters the treasurer's salary will be fixed. At the last meeting of the board it was a tie vote on the subject, and in such cases the county judge has to cast the deciding vote. Judge Clopton was called upon, and will cast the vote to-morrow that will say whether the treasurer will only be paid in commissions, or if the salary now attached to the office, in addition to the commissions, shall remain.

The police officers here, assisted by Officer Wren, of the Richmond force, have been diligently at work on the case and some excellent detective work has been done. They have very skillfully handled the affair, and yesterday lodged in the city jail three notomous theves, and have sufficient evidence to send them to the State prison.

Friday three negroes called at the pawnshop of Mr. Abram, in Richmond. One of the negroes giving the name of J. Henry, pawaed a guitar, officer Tom Wren tound this out and got a description of the negroes. He at once conferred with the Manchester officers and J. Henry Pryor was arrested. Vesterday in the police court the case was continued.

Finding that the thing was looking serious for him, Pryor "sucaled" and told the officers the whole affair, which led to the arrests of Tom Williams. White Crump and Earnest Burrus. Most of the goods stolen from Mr. O'Brien have been recovered, and it is hoped that other articles may be found.

A Day's Happenings Around the Courts of Richmond A Record of Justice John's Legal Proceedings.

Justice John yesterday morning walked up to the bench with the timidity of a new member from the Southside bringing a message into the Senate, for he knew that he had a hard case to deal with, and the weighty responsibilities of his great office seemed to sponsibilities of his great office seemed to rest upon his broad shoulders like the globe upon the back of Atlas. The case of Mr. M. T. Page, a storekeeper, who was charged with raffling turkeys, was to be decided. The justice could stop a church fair without finching, and he could break up a poker game without remorse, but when it comes at this season to stop the playful dallying with choice Hanover turkeys he hestates as long as a man does about having his tooth pulled. This is a bad time to speak of turkeys, and the justice postponed the raffling case until after the first of the New Year.
